

Use Case #2: Create DriverPass Account

1.) The user account must have their ID information verified from an Administrator before the account is successfully created. Until then, the user can access their account info to input fields like Age, Gender, etc.